PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Pastor Jim Hatch, First United Presbyterian Church, Bartow:

Gracious God, before the mountains were born or the seas were filled, from everlasting to everlasting, you are God. It is right and good everywhere and always to give you praise. We were created for that purpose.

God, thank you for this state in which we live; for its unique beauty that reflects your glory; for its abundant resources that are gifts of your grace; for its people — our families, friends and neighbors who are means of your goodness. We thank you.

I thank you for the men and women that are serving in this place, and all of their support throughout this building and our state. God, I pray that as they face needs and issues that impact so many lives that you give them wisdom. The scriptures say that there is always a way that may seem right to a person, but its path leads to destruction. I pray that you would guide these legislators in ways that lead to life. As they may be hard pressed on every side, I pray they would have courage. God, you have shown that to love is to give. Let your love, compassion and justice guide these leaders today, and may your grace sustain them as they serve you by serving your people.

In your holy name, I pray. Amen.

SM 1454—A memorial to the Congress of the United States, urging Congress to make forms for the United States Decennial Census of 2010 available in the Creole language for the Haitian population of Florida.

WHEREAS, results from the United States Decennial Census of 2000 show that there were 419,317 foreign-born persons from Haiti in the United States when the census was taken, and

WHEREAS, the state with the largest population of foreign-born persons from Haiti in 2000 was Florida with 182,224, which represented 6.8 percent of Florida's total foreign-born population of 2.7 million, and

WHEREAS, in conducting the federal decennial statewide census in 2000, the United States Census Bureau used a variety of methods to communicate with people who could not speak English, and

WHEREAS, households that received the census form in the mail had the option of requesting the form in Spanish, Chinese, Tagalog, Vietnamese, or Korean, and

WHEREAS, individuals who believed that they were not included on a form or did not receive a form could use the "Be Counted" questionnaires that were available in public areas and printed in English, Spanish, Tagalog, Vietnamese, and Korean, and

WHEREAS, the Census Bureau also published a short-form and a long-form language assistance guide in 49 different languages, one of which was Creole, to assist respondents, and

WHEREAS, however, given the considerable size of Florida's Haitian population, in the interest of equity and obtaining the most accurate information possible from the next federal decennial statewide census, the United States Census Bureau should make forms for the United States Decennial Census of 2010 more accessible to the Haitian population of Florida by making the census forms available in the Creole language, and

WHEREAS, in addition, the census forms for the United States Decennial Census of 2010 should be prepared in a manner that will allow a respondent to indicate whether he or she is a Haitian national or of Haitian descent, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the Congress of the United States is urged to require the United States Census Bureau to make census forms for the United States Decennial Census of 2010 available in the Creole language to provide for optimal accessibility by the Haitian population of Florida and to prepare the census forms in a manner that will allow a respondent to indicate whether he or she is a Haitian national or of Haitian descent.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this memorial be dispatched to the President of the United States, to the President of the United States Senate, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each member of the Florida delegation to the United States Congress.
